WEYMOUTH GAZETTE.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

M. E. HAWES, Manager and Editor.

It is now nearly a month since the last gun was captured from the Boers, yet they keep on shooting. Strange people the Boers.

Mayor Hiram of Salem gives the young men some advice which may seem a little paradoxical. He says, "go into politics, take the advice of an old man in and win."

Work on the new building at Weymouth for registry of deeds and probate will begin at once. The contract price is $200,000 and it is hoped this does not include another scandal.

The storm of Monday, which raged all over the northeastern states, did not spare Weymouth, and, beyond a little damage in street railroad travel, we have heard of no serious damage.

According to the latest reports the brigands have 80,000 and Miss Stene and her company. Turks and Bulgarians are not doing business on the C. & N. Y. plan in any amount of it.

This week we give our readers an all home print paper which gives us space for a more extensive handling of home matters and also allows us to introduce some new features which we hope will be of interest.

We publish elsewhere the warrant for the town meeting. It is eight or ten articles less than that which was the worthy of attention and Monday, the 10th of March, should be devoted to town business by every citizen.

Rev. Dr. David Gregg of the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, will go down to history as one of the most remarkable men of his age. He voluntarily asked his salary to reduce his salary from $10,000 to $8,000.

Speaker Myers is talking a short session of the legislature and yet Speaker Myers knows that his own people will enter into the legislature, the Westminster elevation and the gas question, have been the Hamlet's ghost for years and will wish Speaker Myers success it is safe to guess Hunker Hill day as early for Monday.

Monday, the 24th of March, will be election day. There are about twenty-eight hundred voters in town and there are six voting precincts. The polls will be open from six o'clock a.m. until 1 p.m. or later, which gives every man ample time to cast his ballot. If there are but 1400 or 1500 votes cast the men who stay at home should do no kicking afterwards if the men of their choice are not elected.

The events of the past week demonstrate that it is not to be trifled with and is no respect of persons or situation, and that too many safeguards cannot be placed around society. By the development of a week ago the Church of Sacred Heart at Weymouth, the Church of St. Francis Xavier at South Weymouth, the High School, all of the schools in Ward 3, and the Taft Library are closed.

A large number of people have been exposed, and while some are to be pitied, and are of an unrecalled fear or panic, too much care can be taken on the part of those who have been in the way of the disease. It is a question how effective the closing of schools will be if the same persons who attend the schools continue to go to a large extent to other places.

NONFOLK CLUB.
Only one member present on Team Three Monday night. It made it impossible for him to win more than one game. Tirrell, the only man on Team Three, was best man, with 414 and a single 179. Total Team Three, 933; Team Two, 1090.

Team Five took two games from Team Four Tuesday night. Totals, Team Five, 1050; Team Four, 1221.

Taft Library.
The exhibition of photographs announced to be held from February 26th to March 15th will not begin until March 2nd as the library will be closed until that date by order of the Board of Health.

Savings Bank Statement.
The Weymouth Savings Bank, 52 Boylston street, Boston, has just issued a comparative statement of all the savings banks of the state, which is of interest to those looking for information in that line. This statement may be had on application to this bank.

NOTICE.
At a meeting of the Board of Health of Weymouth, held on Monday, the twentieth last, it was decided to continue free vaccination until the first of March next.

Also, the following regulation was adopted:
"No person shall be allowed to visit any place in this town where a case of small pox is known to exist, without a written permit from the Board of Health or the physician in charge, and then not unless they have had the disease, or show satisfactory evidence of successful vaccination, or vaccination of recent date."

The order of the Board of Health of Weymouth.

Beautiful Sea Shell Froze.
Since coming South I have received numerous inquiries for sea shells and now present to your readers that I am at present in the seashore, and have made a sea collection of lovely shells from our own shore, the coral reefs and the West Indian islands, and will sell them at a very low price, to two alike, and a dozen different kinds, no two alike, and a dozen smaller sea shells to any one who needs a stamp to pay the postage. Any one is welcome to send, as I have plenty for all.

Miss F. A. Winkler, Taft Beach, Fla.

SLATES BEING FILLED.

The Week Before the Battle is an Active One.

This has been a busy week among the political workers of the town. Ward committees have been held by the Republicans in all of the wards, excepting Ward 2, which was held last week, and as a rule they have been remarkably short and quiet.

Ward 1 was organized with the choice of F. A. Hickman as chairman, and Charles Chisholm, clerk, proceeded at once to business, and nominated George L. Newton for Selectman, Overseer of the Poor, and also for a Justice of the Peace, and John A. Raymond for Town Clerk, and William J. Dunbar for Collector, at the general caucus.

Ward 2 had a remarkably short and quiet caucus. Russell H. Worcester, chairman, and William S. Wallace, clerk.

E. W. Hunt was the unanimous nominee for Selectman and Overseer of the Poor. F. H. Mason, Water Commissioner, Thomas Fitzgerald and J. B. Walsh, constables.

A. J. Richard was nominated as Commissioner on High School Sinking Fund. It was also voted to support John H. Stearns for treasurer, John A. Raymond, town clerk, and John A. Neal, auditor, and the general caucus.

Ward 4. The raging storm of Monday night did not keep people away from the caucus held at the House House at Nax's corner.

The meeting was called to order by Arthur C. Lord, Chairman of the Ward Committee, and organized with the choice of Charles Haves, chairman, and H. W. Haver, clerk. The meeting proceeded to business, and the vote was taken for the following officers: Selectman, Overseer of the Poor, and Justice of the Peace, and Town Clerk, and Collector, and Constables.

Frank E. Lord, chairman of Weymouth High School, 21, was unanimously nominated to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Haves (re-elected) on the School Board.

George H. Bailey and William F. French received unanimous nominations for constables, and the vote was taken for the following officers: Selectman, Overseer of the Poor, and Justice of the Peace, and Town Clerk, and Collector, and Constables.

Ward 5. The meeting called to order by Gordon Willis, Chairman of Ward Committee.

The meeting organized with the choice of Mr. Willis as chairman, and Walter L. Bates as clerk. The meeting proceeded to business, and the vote was taken for the following officers: Selectman, Overseer of the Poor, and Justice of the Peace, and Town Clerk, and Collector, and Constables.

MERITICAN DOWN CAUSE.
The call for a Republican town caucus to be held in Engine hall, Weymouth, on Monday, February 24th, at 8 o'clock, has been received from all parts of the town.

The meeting was called to order by E. W. Hunt, chairman of the Republican Town committee, and M. E. Haves was elected clerk. The meeting proceeded to business, and the vote was taken for the following officers: Selectman, Overseer of the Poor, and Justice of the Peace, and Town Clerk, and Collector, and Constables.

Reports of the several primary meetings were read and the meeting proceeded to make up a ticket to be voted for at the coming election and the following nominations were made: John A. Raymond, Selectman; Walter L. Bates, Overseer of the Poor; George L. Newton, Justice of the Peace; John A. Raymond, Town Clerk; William J. Dunbar, Collector; and Charles Chisholm, Constables.

Walter L. Bates, Walter Field, George Torrey, Lawrence A. Blanchard, Everett Cushing, Fred Reed, George Holbrook, Joe Taylor and Arthur Haver were appointed as delegates to attend the general caucus.

Home-made candles were sold by Mrs. Morrill and the lovely young ladies associated with her in the green and white booth. It was a sweet place altogether, and many were the who turned there.

The Domestic Counter had Mrs. Elbridge Nash for madam-chairman of its committee, assisted by ladies whose capacity was best demonstrated by the goods of the table was the quantity of advance orders taken, and the many wait places filled. The receipts here also were well up to the mark.

In the corner under the box, a Turkish effect had been produced with hangings and rags, and in the midst of such rich surroundings, Misses Crabbe and Beale Haywood served tea and chocolate, while a dim religious glow pervaded the whole scene. It was a past time to see.

The entertainments were all good. It was the intention of the management to have them so.

For the first night, the appeal was to the children, and a large attendance justified the trouble taken. The first night, the appeal was to the children, and a large attendance justified the trouble taken.

The above completes the list as far as Republican nominations go, but there are in circulation, nomination papers with good strings of endorsements for other candidates and as the papers must all be in by Monday night next, the people will have ample time to discuss them before the election.

FOGG LIBRARY FAIR.

South Weymouth's Great Event.

"How good you are at the 'Fog'! 'Oh! pretty fair!' said; 'I was glad at the door by many a Fair Maid, But carried me, for ever!' I remembered another thing, 'You very much'."

The foregoing was written by a youth of our acquaintance more than twenty years ago, and he is being suggestive of Spotted Town, goes to prove that fair is not a new invention, but simply a popular event. They break out as the needs of an era demand, and if the Fogg Library fair of 1902 is happening have been greater than those of our boyhood days, it is because the need has been greater.

The great fair has preserved its entity though tossed about by many elements; its aspects may appear in a variety of forms, but the underlying aims remain the same, and the results are the same.

Upon this occasion no attempt was made to decrease the upturn prevailing that it would be a fair to the people, but for the fair has no faults of architecture to find, and there would be no lack of harmony to rely upon an arrangement of tables, booths and the quietest ornamentation.

The first group of attractions was the display of the Grocery and Notion committee, Walter R. Field, chairman, assisted by a lot of active young men. We would like to mention by name every member of the committee, but space is lacking. This was the only table supervised by the male sex, and there was a deliciously lively air about it. Contributions had apparently been tested from all parts of the community, and the names of all the donors were on the list.

Without going into particulars the features will be black-face songs, eccentric dances, musical specialties, clowns, high kicking, sleight-of-hand, acrobatic stunts, and a wealth of other interesting and amusing things.

The Fanny House table had Miss Mary A. Fanny for madam-chairman, with a number of equally charming assistants. The members of this staff had evidently been coached, and it was impossible for a newspaper man to make a mistake in the names of the girls, who were all so charming and so well trained.

Miss E. Barker, Arthur Lord, Milton Lord, Wilton L. Haves, A. P. Poole, Preston Pratt, H. W. Haver, Russell Poole, O. M. Shaw and Preston Lewis were appointed as delegates to attend the general caucus.

AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The basketball game which was to have been played between the Brainerde girls and the Freshmen at Brainerde, Wednesday afternoon was cancelled. The game will probably be played some time during the middle of March.

The Sargeant, owing to the death of her sister, was obliged to be absent from her duties the latter part of last week.

Geometry, History and Algebra classes for those preparing for college will be formed in a few weeks.

Miss Louise Coving '90, who has been confined to her home for the past few weeks is slowly improving.

The Supper class held their second class meeting of the year in Room 5 the latter part of last week and took action upon their coming report. It was far from successful, but the event should be held on the evening of April 5. Thereupon followed some discussion but soon cooled down and the motion prevailed. An entertainment committee consisting of the members, Misses Sargent, Thomas and Haymond and Messrs. C. and Haymond, was then chosen and upon motion the following game committee was appointed by the president, Misses Sargent and Clarence White. The meeting then adjourned all necessary business having been transacted.

The M. M. of 1902, the young ladies secret society recently formed in the school, are holding meetings and are building good.

The McKinley Memorial services have been postponed until the early part of the month of March. The date will be announced in next week's column.

Among those who are confined to their homes on account of illness are Misses Nether '92, Lane '95, O'Connor '94, Nether '92 and Trowell '95.

A class of thirty odd members without a treasurer and holding meetings and are building good.

In the order issued by the Board of Health Tuesday afternoon, appeared a list of schools that the school committee had ordered to be closed.

The school committee had ordered to be closed the school at the High School and South Weymouth. The school committee had ordered to be closed the school at the High School and South Weymouth.

WEYMOUTH AND EAST BRAintree.

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of next week the attractions of the town will be at Odd Fellows' Club House, East Weymouth. These are the nights of the cemetery fair and every night you will see a good entertainment.

Mrs. W. H. Clapp spent Sunday with her father, at Amherst, N. H.

Stuffed dates 25c. per pound, at Harlow's.

The regular social of the First Universalist Society will be held in Lincoln hall this evening, the boys of Miss S. Jase Clapp's Sunday School class being the supper committee, and in charge generally. As their reputation for providing good suppers is well known, it is hoped a large company will be present.

Mrs. M. E. Perry, who has been confined to the house for the past week with a severe cold, is able to be out again.

Something new, fig chips, 25c. per pound at Harlow's.

Charles Nash or Frost street, who has been quite ill with lung trouble, is rapidly improving.

The subject under consideration by Mr. Nash at the First Universalist Church Sunday morning was the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" and the text was from Matt. 23: 34. "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." The congregation was a very attentive one, and the choir, assisted by Mr. Lincoln, of East Weymouth, rendered a number of choice selections.

Butter Scotch wafers, 25c. per pound at Harlow's.

The Puritana Whist Club met with Miss Elsie Litchfield at East Weymouth, Tuesday evening of last week.

Prices were won Mrs. John Neal and Miss Blanche Ingell, and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Both Trufant, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is improving.

Chocolate caramels, 25c. per pound at Harlow's.

Mrs. Ruth H. Treut, formerly of this place, who now resides with her daughter, Mrs. A. T. Nowcomb of Harrison Square, celebrated her 82nd birthday on Sunday, Feb. 10th. She was congratulated by her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and received many beautiful tokens of remembrance.

The engagement is announced of Miss Carrie F. Crocker of this town to Alfred W. Fisher of South Braintree.

Miss Agnes Lloyd will read at Meade Hall, Quincy, on Friday evening, Feb. 21st.

Lime drops, 25c. per pound at Harlow's.

The High Honorable John Foster Gray spoke at South Braintree near Town hall tomorrow evening. Subject, "George and His Little Hatchet."

Cocooned caramels, 25c. per pound at Harlow's.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Cemetery Improvement Association was held with Mrs. A. W. Clapp, Wednesday of this week. The report of the treasurer showed the net proceeds of the recent fair to be $230. The next meeting will be at the residence of Miss S. Jase Clapp, the third Wednesday of next month.

Mrs. Wood of Oakhurst, Pa., is visiting Mrs. Albert Arnold of Torrey avenue. Sept. Edgerly is also here for a short stay.

Mrs. and Mrs. Nordfelt arrived in town yesterday for a short visit.

Grand Army Teller.

Some families have the honor of having been represented in the army of the civil war by two or more brothers, yet there are few families which can claim to have been represented by all members of the family. This is the case with the Cressey family. Rev. Timothy H. Cressey, then of Columbus, Ohio, was the father of a number of children, and among them Frederick J. and Frank B. Cressey, who both saw active service in the army, and both are now prominent Grand Army men. Rev. Frank B. Cressey, pastor of the Baptist church in this place, being at present chaplain of Heywards post 68, and an active member in its ranks.

SOUTH WEYMOUTH

The Fairmount Cemetery Association of East Weymouth have always given the people a good fair and good entertainment. You must make a mistake in going either on one of the nights next week—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at Odd Fellows' Club House.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edna Doble of North Adams are visiting Mr. Doble's parents on Pond street.

The latest guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKee of Pond street is a young man by the name of Edward Leland McKee.

Lewis Ellis is suffering from a severe cold from an over-exposed to the cold Sunday night.

At the thirty-minute talk, held at the Union Church Sunday, manufacturers from all parts of the town were present.

A. F. Bullock entertained a large number of friends at a party given at his home on Central street, Friday evening.

The honors were taken by Henry C. Kohler and A. F. Bullock. The consolation prizes were taken by J. D. Sargent and F. F. Bullock. A collation was served during the evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. B. Raymond were on the way to the Library fair Tuesday night when Mrs. Raymond fell on the ice, opposite the residence of Daniel Hart, and fractured her leg in two places, both breaks being between the knee and ankle.

Miss Mary K. Arnold of Fall River is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Pratt.

Rev. F. E. Butler will exchange with Rev. F. W. Barrows of Braintree, Sunday.

Over fifty years ago Nathaniel Shaw, one of the prominent citizens of South Weymouth, and a man of letters, purchased two soprano violins. At this time he was interested in the musical education of the late Noah Torrey and he granted him the privilege of choosing from these violins one for his own use. Young Noah selected the genuine Amati which has since been associated with his name and fame as a player in this vicinity.

Torrey values this violin at $1000. The other violin, an Amati model, but made by a German who styled himself "Court Luteist and Instrumental Maker," has since remained in the Shaw family, and is now the only visible remembrance retained by William A. Shaw of his father.

This violin, now shown to the public at the library fair, was played by Bates Torrey, Jr., at the library fair, Tuesday night, and its tone and management seemed to give abundant satisfaction.

Rev. F. Lawrence of Hoshany is attending to the duties of the St. Francis Xavier Church during the quarantine of Rev. J. B. Holland.

Elbridge G. Cushing passed away at his home on Main street yesterday morning after a brief illness of a few days of apoplexy, aged 72 years. The deceased was a member of Post 25, G. A. R. He was buried at 2 o'clock Sunday.

At the meeting of the registrars in Ward 8, Monday evening, seven new names were put on the list, and in Ward 4, Tuesday evening, three were added, two out of the three were women.

Harry F. Merritt is home from Tufts College for a few days.

John A. Fogg is confined to the house with an attack of the grip.

Weymouth Baptist church observed the forty-eighth anniversary of their church organization last Friday evening, 14th inst. Supper was served, speeches were made, and music and greetings were enjoyed; all under the general supervision of a committee headed by Rev. J. B. Holland.

The speakers included Rev. Jonathan Tilton, a member of the church, Rev. J. C. Clark, a former pastor, Marshall C. Dyer, for many years one of the church's staunchest supporters, F. A. Sullivan, former superintendent of the Bible school, Mr. Cobb of the Boston Herald, Mr. Harriet K. Guttersen, and Mrs. Sarah L. Bourne. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. E. H. Hicks, of the Bangor Baptist College, Bangor.

One of the three only remaining constituent members of the church, and the only one who by reason of health and Weymouth residence is able to attend the meetings of the church. Her remarks were especially interesting and valuable as she spoke of the meeting at which the church was organized.

The other two remaining constituent members are Mrs. Mary Lindsay, and Mrs. Elizabeth Peterson, the latter living on Torrey's lane, Weymouth. The music of the evening was furnished by John H. and Miss Angelina M. Guttersen.

Last Sunday, Feb. 10th, was Rev. Mr. Tilton's eighty-fourth birthday. He "celebrated" the day by preaching in the morning a rejuvenated sermon, alluding mostly to his own outcast labor in behalf of the Weymouth church in its earliest days, he being then in the midst of his twenty-five years' pastorate at Hingham. During these services the pastor presented Mr. Tilton with a small but beautiful and fragrant bouquet from one of the sick and shut-in Baptists of Weymouth, speaking of its fragrance as suggestive of Mr. Tilton's beautiful and fragrant life for God. Mr. Tilton is held in the highest esteem by both church and community. On Tuesday members of the Bible class made him a birthday call.

Rev. Frank B. Cressey, the pastor, expects to baptize a half dozen or more young people from the Bible school next Sunday evening at the close of the sermon. Mrs. E. M. Drew will assist the choir and sing a duet with Lawyer Edward C. Clark of Weymouth Center.

Mrs. Drew will sing on Sunday evening, March 2d, when the Knights of Pythias go to worship at the Baptist Church.

PORTER

The people of this village ought to be interested in all of the alights of the cemetery fair at East Weymouth, next week, especially in the high class vaudeville Friday night.

A most enjoyable family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Osborne last Saturday evening when Mr. Osborne's sisters, with families, who reside in Quincy, Arlington, Hingham and North Weymouth spent the evening with him. The Misses Townsend in piano as well as vocal duets were in constant demand. A lunch was served at a table in the house.

About 100 people gathered at the Porter house Friday evening to listen to the excellent lecture of Miss Anna Barrows entitled, "Milk," and were well repaid for their effort. The lecture was under the auspices of the Weymouth Industrial and Agricultural Society.

Mrs. Nathan Tirrell is to have charge of the entertainment to be given in the M. E. Church Friday evening, therefore a most pleasing one is assured.

Joseph Miller, the house man for the granite dealer, of this place, is driving a new fancy steamer around, lately purchased.

John Drayton and Frank Champion have accepted positions with M. C. Dyer East Weymouth, the weather Monday evening, about 25 voters from this part of the Ward went to the caucus at Nash.

Henry Burke is able to be out once more after his recent illness.

John Drayton and Frank Champion have accepted positions with M. C. Dyer East Weymouth, the weather Monday evening, about 25 voters from this part of the Ward went to the caucus at Nash.

NORTH WEYMOUTH.

Politics may interest you a little next week, but the fair of Fairmount Cemetery Circle of East Weymouth ought not to be forgotten. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights are the nights for entertainment and every one will be good.

The Ladies' Circle of the Pilgrim Church will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon and evening. Supper at 5 o'clock.

The tables were well filled at the climber dance last Friday noon and the Ladies' Circle of the Pilgrim Church sang.

Mrs. Joseph A. Pratt left town on Friday, Feb. 14, for New Orleans, La., going by way of Chicago where she was joined by her brother, E. F. Beale and wife of Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. Pratt will be away several weeks.

The Weymouth Colonists will be at Pilgrim Church vestry on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23. The company have been practicing for a long time, and a fine program is now ready.

Selections G. M. Newton has been on the sick list this week.

Miss Mary Hatch spent Saturday and Sunday last with friends in Marshfield.

Miss Viola Tirrell gave a vaudeville party Friday evening Feb. 14, in honor of the Boy Workers' Club and a merry time was enjoyed by those present and a dainty lunch served.

Irving L. Shaw is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

The illustrated lecture given by Rev. M. S. Nash last Sunday on "Christ's Person Ministry" was listened to with great interest. The house was crowded and many beautiful pictures thrown on the screen.

Mrs. G. W. Clark gave a tea party in honor of Mrs. E. H. Benson on Thursday last.

W. D. Davis of Framingham was in town one day last week reviewing old acquaintances and also visiting the Athens (dramatic school), where he formerly held the position of principal.

Miss L. T. Nelson is entertaining her relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, 118 U. S. P. Y., will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, at 7.45 o'clock.

Annie Vander and family moved from East Boston to their old home in North Weymouth last week.

Mrs. J. J. Byrne are visiting their daughter, Mrs. John Digswell, at Pittsfield, Mass.

The local League meeting will be postponed on account of Washington's birthday on Saturday, March 3d.

Mrs. J. J. Byrne and daughter of Weymouth were the recent guests of Mrs. B. F. Thomas.

Rev. T. H. Vincent attended the Norfolk Association meeting of Congregational ministers, held at Brockton last Tuesday, and made an address on "Fidelity to the Concrete."

The people of the Pilgrim Church are arranging to observe the semi-centennial of the organization of the church, beginning March 10th and continuing the services until the 11th. An interesting program is being arranged.

The concert given in Pilgrim Church Wednesday evening, proved a brilliant success. The solo and string quartets, from the Harvard University, under the management of F. V. Gray, rendered many fine and pleasing selections. Mr. Elbert Foland of the Emerson School of Oratory was very taking and entertaining in his reading. The others, the Misses Orlum, Curtis, Clark, Keck, Curdick, Carmichael and Pliska, assisted by William Davis and Alvin Richman performed their work in a graceful manner. The church was tastefully decorated with hunting, Harvard flags, etc., which with the pretty dresses of the young ladies, gave a pleasing effect. Much credit is due to the Misses Curtis and Clark in their efforts to make the concert a success and the writer would like to mention the fact that the proceeds of this concert are to be paid toward the church debt.

Mr. Joseph Deyoung, who has been recovering from his illness at the City Hospital, returned this week to his home at Norton street and speaks in glowing terms of the care and attention received there.

All the stores in the village will close Saturday, Feb. 22 at 12 o'clock.

The Gen. Lovell house, an old revolutionary landmark on Neck street was destroyed by fire Monday night. An alarm was rung at 11.45 but the flames had gained such headway before the fire department arrived that the building was totally destroyed. The high winds fanned the flames but the firemen worked with a will and succeeded in confining the flames to one building. The three families of Louis Delisle, James Condon and Mrs. Joan were barely escaped with their nightclothes. The house owned by J. R. Curtis had just undergone extensive repairs and improvements. This was one of the worst fires that ever visited North Weymouth, some fifteen people being driven out into the wild storm without carrying their friends and belongings and their rescue and at present they are all comfortably housed. The building was insured but there was no insurance on the contents.

Harry F. Merritt is home from Tufts College for a few days.

John A. Fogg is confined to the house with an attack of the grip.

Weymouth Baptist church observed the forty-eighth anniversary of their church organization last Friday evening, 14th inst. Supper was served, speeches were made, and music and greetings were enjoyed; all under the general supervision of a committee headed by Rev. J. B. Holland.

The speakers included Rev. Jonathan Tilton, a member of the church, Rev. J. C. Clark, a former pastor, Marshall C. Dyer, for many years one of the church's staunchest supporters, F. A. Sullivan, former superintendent of the Bible school, Mr. Cobb of the Boston Herald, Mr. Harriet K. Guttersen, and Mrs. Sarah L. Bourne. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. E. H. Hicks, of the Bangor Baptist College, Bangor.

One of the three only remaining constituent members of the church, and the only one who by reason of health and Weymouth residence is able to attend the meetings of the church. Her remarks were especially interesting and valuable as she spoke of the meeting at which the church was organized.

The other two remaining constituent members are Mrs. Mary Lindsay, and Mrs. Elizabeth Peterson, the latter living on Torrey's lane, Weymouth. The music of the evening was furnished by John H. and Miss Angelina M. Guttersen.

Last Sunday, Feb. 10th, was Rev. Mr. Tilton's eighty-fourth birthday. He "celebrated" the day by preaching in the morning a rejuvenated sermon, alluding mostly to his own outcast labor in behalf of the Weymouth church in its earliest days, he being then in the midst of his twenty-five years' pastorate at Hingham. During these services the pastor presented Mr. Tilton with a small but beautiful and fragrant bouquet from one of the sick and shut-in Baptists of Weymouth, speaking of its fragrance as suggestive of Mr. Tilton's beautiful and fragrant life for God. Mr. Tilton is held in the highest esteem by both church and community. On Tuesday members of the Bible class made him a birthday call.

Rev. Frank B. Cressey, the pastor, expects to baptize a half dozen or more young people from the Bible school next Sunday evening at the close of the sermon. Mrs. E. M. Drew will assist the choir and sing a duet with Lawyer Edward C. Clark of Weymouth Center.

Mrs. Drew will sing on Sunday evening, March 2d, when the Knights of Pythias go to worship at the Baptist Church.

PORTER

The people of this village ought to be interested in all of the alights of the cemetery fair at East Weymouth, next week, especially in the high class vaudeville Friday night.

A most enjoyable family gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Osborne last Saturday evening when Mr. Osborne's sisters, with families, who reside in Quincy, Arlington, Hingham and North Weymouth spent the evening with him. The Misses Townsend in piano as well as vocal duets were in constant demand. A lunch was served at a table in the house.

About 100 people gathered at the Porter house Friday evening to listen to the excellent lecture of Miss Anna Barrows entitled, "Milk," and were well repaid for their effort. The lecture was under the auspices of the Weymouth Industrial and Agricultural Society.

Mrs. Nathan Tirrell is to have charge of the entertainment to be given in the M. E. Church Friday evening, therefore a most pleasing one is assured.

Joseph Miller, the house man for the granite dealer, of this place, is driving a new fancy steamer around, lately purchased.

John Drayton and Frank Champion have accepted positions with M. C. Dyer East Weymouth, the weather Monday evening, about 25 voters from this part of the Ward went to the caucus at Nash.

Henry Burke is able to be out once more after his recent illness.

John Drayton and Frank Champion have accepted positions with M. C. Dyer East Weymouth, the weather Monday evening, about 25 voters from this part of the Ward went to the caucus at Nash.

NORTH WEYMOUTH.

Politics may interest you a little next week, but the fair of Fairmount Cemetery Circle of East Weymouth ought not to be forgotten. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights are the nights for entertainment and every one will be good.

The Ladies' Circle of the Pilgrim Church will meet in the vestry Wednesday afternoon and evening. Supper at 5 o'clock.

The tables were well filled at the climber dance last Friday noon and the Ladies' Circle of the Pilgrim Church sang.

Mrs. Joseph A. Pratt left town on Friday, Feb. 14, for New Orleans, La., going by way of Chicago where she was joined by her brother, E. F. Beale and wife of Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. Pratt will be away several weeks.

The Weymouth Colonists will be at Pilgrim Church vestry on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23. The company have been practicing for a long time, and a fine program is now ready.

Selections G. M. Newton has been on the sick list this week.

Miss Mary Hatch spent Saturday and Sunday last with friends in Marshfield.

Miss Viola Tirrell gave a vaudeville party Friday evening Feb. 14, in honor of the Boy Workers' Club and a merry time was enjoyed by those present and a dainty lunch served.

Irving L. Shaw is recovering from an attack of appendicitis.

The illustrated lecture given by Rev. M. S. Nash last Sunday on "Christ's Person Ministry" was listened to with great interest. The house was crowded and many beautiful pictures thrown on the screen.

Mrs. G. W. Clark gave a tea party in honor of Mrs. E. H. Benson on Thursday last.

W. D. Davis of Framingham was in town one day last week reviewing old acquaintances and also visiting the Athens (dramatic school), where he formerly held the position of principal.

Miss L. T. Nelson is entertaining her relatives at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones, 118 U. S. P. Y., will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, at 7.45 o'clock.

Annie Vander and family moved from East Boston to their old home in North Weymouth last week.

Mrs. J. J. Byrne are visiting their daughter, Mrs. John Digswell, at Pittsfield, Mass.

The local League meeting will be postponed on account of Washington's birthday on Saturday, March 3d.

Mrs. J. J. Byrne and daughter of Weymouth were the recent guests of Mrs. B. F. Thomas.

Rev. T. H. Vincent attended the Norfolk Association meeting of Congregational ministers, held at Brockton last Tuesday, and made an address on "Fidelity to the Concrete."

The people of the Pilgrim Church are arranging to observe the semi-centennial of the organization of the church, beginning March 10th and continuing the services until the 11th. An interesting program is being arranged.

The concert given in Pilgrim Church Wednesday evening, proved a brilliant success. The solo and string quartets, from the Harvard University, under the management of F. V. Gray, rendered many fine and pleasing selections. Mr. Elbert Foland of the Emerson School of Oratory was very taking and entertaining in his reading. The others, the Misses Orlum, Curtis, Clark, Keck, Curdick, Carmichael and Pliska, assisted by William Davis and Alvin Richman performed their work in a graceful manner. The church was tastefully decorated with hunting, Harvard flags, etc., which with the pretty dresses of the young ladies, gave a pleasing effect. Much credit is due to the Misses Curtis and Clark in their efforts to make the concert a success and the writer would like to mention the fact that the proceeds of this concert are to be paid toward the church debt.

Mr. Joseph Deyoung, who has been recovering from his illness at the City Hospital, returned this week to his home at Norton street and speaks in glowing terms of the care and attention received there.

All the stores in the village will close Saturday, Feb. 22 at 12

The sports editor stood at the window and looked out at the city.

Three blocks away, over the tops of the houses, a column of smoke rose into the air, and the sound of firing came from the city.

"Great shooting!" said the sports editor. "What a day for the city!"

The city editor came to the window and looked out at the city.
